

CMPL Comic Con Artists' Alley Disclaimer

By submitting this form, I agree to adhere to the following policies:

1. The Clinton-Macomb Public Library (CMPL) will provide one 5x3 in table space, two chairs, and Wifi at no charge. Electrical outlet access cannot be guaranteed. Extra Tables and special requests will be processed on an individual basis. No signs or artwork shall block the flow of traffic or should be hung from the wall, fastened to the floor, or otherwise attached to library property without prior permission from the library.
2. All materials visible to the public should be appropriate for all ages. If you are unsure about the appropriateness of anything you would like to bring, please contact event coordinators. The library may request that an artist remove any item from display at their table at any time.
3. Any type of work shall be accepted so long as it is the artist's own original work and design and relates to comics, anime, gaming, or pop culture. Objects that are not acceptable include: any item that is a weapon or direct reproduction of copyrighted material or original work by another artist. CMPL reserves the right to deny sales or display of any work deemed controversial.
4. You are responsible for the running of your table; keeping it staffed and handling money and receipts. Your table should be staffed at all times throughout the duration of your time at Comic Con. CMPL staff or volunteers working at Comic Con are unable to tend your booth for you, even for breaks or panels.
5. You are responsible for set-up and tear-down of your space and bringing materials in and out of the library. Set-up is from 10am-12pm. The Artist Alley is open from: 12pm-5:30pm. Artists must be packed up by 6pm, no exceptions.
6. The Clinton-Macomb Public Library, nor any of their representatives, will not be responsible for any damage, loss, or injury that may occur to the Artists', assistants, family members or property from any cause whatsoever.
7. Should they decide their involvement in CMPL Comic Con is no longer appropriate, CMPL staff reserve the right to ask any vendor to leave at any time.
